Meldreth, Shepreth and Foxton Railway Station Gardens

Sponsoring a platform planter

The Railway Station Gardens at Meldreth, Shepreth and Foxton will be launched on July 9th, when the three stations celebrate their 160th, 160th and 163rd birthdays, respectively.

The project is sponsored by the Meldreth, Shepreth and Foxton Rail User Group, and is built around the idea of local residents, schools and businesses, who use and enjoy the local railway, creating and maintaining the gardens year round. We'd like to give our stations a village identity, and to encourage use of the sustainable transport network on our doorstep.

Each garden will have its own theme depending on the configuration of the station property and amount of land available, as well as the interests and input of the local community.

Foxton's garden is necessarily confined to the platforms and will focus on planters. Shepreth's garden will make use of the area around the entrance area adjacent to the car park, and will have a wildlife theme garden sponsored by Shepreth Wildlife Park and the primary school. Meldreth's garden will make use of the plot of ground in front of the Indian takeaway, where the primary school gardening club is creating a flower and vegetable patch.

All three stations will have traditional oak barrel planters on the station platforms.

Local people – individuals, families, schools or businesses - are welcome to sponsor the care of one or more of the oak barrel planters. This will involve supplying potting soil and summer or winter annuals, which can either be purchased or grown in advance from seed. In the first year the cost will be a bit more because there has not been enough lead time to grow plants from seed, and the cost per planter will be about £15-£20 for soil and plants.

At each station the name of the sponsor will be displayed on our Railway Garden notice boards. We'd like sponsors to commit to the care of their planters for at least one year.

Vandalism is a sad fact of life these days but we will take a practical attitude and simply replant if necessary – sponsors will be asked to anticipate this possibility.

Please get in touch if you would like to get involved! The reverse side of this sheet tells a little about work on the Railway Gardens project so far, and plans for July 9th.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Susan van de Ven

July 9th railway birthdays celebration schedule

- Foxton Station: 12:10
- Meldreth Station: 13:10
- Shepreth Station: 14:10

At each station we will have a delegation of local primary school children to help launch the new railway station gardens.

A local history theme will be woven into the day, with Foxton's Common Stream group and Meldreth's Local History Group providing photographic displays in their respective station houses, and a specially reprinted local history of Shepreth and the local railway, Distant Voices, available to purchase at each station (£6).

Mike Sharman, Foxton resident and local rail historian, will travel by train to each station with an historic railway lantern, accompanied by the Common Stream Local History group, a Melbourn Village College musician, a Shepreth Wildlife Park representative, the County Council's Community Transport officer, First Capital Connect Station Services Manager, and Meldreth, Shepreth and Foxton Rail User Group.

Free ice cream will be served by Gocold at each station. All welcome!
