

Meldreth is staffed in the morning and has a ticket office, waiting room and toilets available when staffed

Refreshments are available from the British Queen in Meldreth

Meldreth is on the mainline between Kings Cross and Cambridge

Trains run every half hour in the weekday peak and hourly off peak and at the weekend

THATCHED COTTAGES TRAIL

Meldreth

WANT MORE?

This is one of a range of self-guided walks from railway stations in South Cambridgeshire and North Herfordshire Discover more at:

meldrethsheprethfoxtonrail.org.uk/local-walks/

Duration: 2 Hours

Distance: 4.2 Miles

Difficulty: Easy

Starting from Meldreth Station, this circular walk takes you past all 19 Thatched Cottages in Meldreth

THATCHED COTTAGES TRAIL MELDRETH

DIRECTIONS

(D) From Meldreth Station take the path which crosses the field towards Melbourn. Where the path joins Station Road, turn right and visit 61 Orchard Cottage and 63.

(1) Continue along Station Road, walking under the road bridge and visit 9 Fieldgate Cottage and 3 Meldreth Thatch. Cross over the railway bridge and bear left into Whitecroft Road to visit 9 Walnut Cottage, 27, 30 and 32.

(2) Turn left into Chiswick End and visit 23 and 34 Fordham's Cottage before retracing your steps back to Whitecroft Road.

(3) Turn left and visit 41 Bluebell Cottage before retracing your steps down Whitecroft Road.

(4) At Elin Way turn left and follow the road all the way to the High Street.

(5) Turn left and visit 70 Keys Cottage and 51 The Old Bell. At this point you can visit the British Queen a quaint traditional freehouse with homemade, locally sourced food, or continue on to Applecote 85 High Street.

(6) Continue onto North End and visit 9-11 Willow Way Cottage, 13 Homeland, 19 The Cottage and 29 The Old Town House, then carry on to Holy Trinity Church.

(7) Here you can either carry on to number 98 then return, or turn right on the footpath to Topcliffe Mill.

(8) Follow the path round the left side of the Mill and across the field into Melwood local nature reserve.

(9) When you reach the junction with Flambards Close, cross the river and return to the High Street.

(10) Turn left at the High Street and this will bring you back to Meldreth Station.

